

Raising voices for African education
Porte-voix pour l'éducation en Afrique

Braine-l'Alleud, 24th of November 2013

To whom it may concern

I, the undersigned, Jean-jacques Schul am pleased to invite in the name of IDAY-International & IDAY-Kenya:

Dr. Patrick Ogwang Engeu

Passport n° B0622388

Delivered on 18.07.2007

Natural Chemotherapeutics Research Institute, Ministry of Health, Uganda.

to lead the Evaluation mission that will examine the results of the Kenyan school programme implemented by Kenyatta University to protect schoolchildren and prisoners against malaria and other infectious diseases with natural extracts of Artemisia annua planted by the children & prisoners.

The mission will include Dr. Tobias Arudo, Sociologist of the Kenyatta University and project manager, Dr René Christensen, Former Doctor of the European Investment Bank, and Mrs. Flora Mbela Lusendi, Phytotherapist. The evaluation will take place between January 13th and 25th. The report of the mission will be produced by Mrs. Mbela Lusendi under the guidance of Dr Patrick Ogwang.

I express my gratitude to the Ugandan and Kenyan authorities to facilitate whatever measures are needed to allow the participation of Dr Patrick Ogwang in this exercise.

Yours faithfully,

Jean-Jacques Schul
Chairman

*I accept the invitation
Dr. Ogwang Patrick En
2/1/2014.*

IDAY'S HONORARY COMMITTEE Dr Oley Dibba-Wadda (Executive Director FAWE) Hauwa Ibrahim (Sakharov Prize 2005) Baaba Maal (Ambassador UNDP - Senegal) Luisa Morgantini (Vice-President of the European Parliament 2007/2009) Denis Mukwege (King Baudouin Prize 2011, Director of Panzi Hospital) Mampe Ntsedi (Nelson Mandela Children Center) - Ousmane Sy (King Baudouin Prize 2005 and founder of CEPIA)

IDAY International Day of the African Child and Youth

IDAY-International aisbl - Rue des Jambes 19 - 1420 Braine-l'Alleud - Belgium - T. +32 (0)2 385 44 13 - F. +32 (0)2 385 44 12